A. BOWEN FERRY,

Superintendent.

Commanding N. W. M. Police, Prince Albert.

There seems now to be no doubt that Riel will suffer the extreme penalty of the law on Nov. 11th, as the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council of England have decided against him. His counsel some days ago received an assurance that no further respite could or would be allowed him.

Excitement over the fate of Riel continues to increase. The French are leaving no stone unturned to force a commutation of sentence, but Sir John Macdonald is said to be fully resolved on the execution taking place on the 11th Nov.

Riel's counsel has received information that the Cabinet will, as soon as additional affidavits are forwarded, order a medical commission to pronounce upon Riel's mental condition.

The Queen has replied to the message of the Peace Council, praying for a commutation of the death sentence passed on Louis Riel by Canadian Courts, that she is unable to interfere in the case without first consulting her responsible advisers.

The Queen has delegated the pardoning power to the Gov. General of Canada, who is consulting into the matter.

REQUISITION

fully request that you will allow your all lawful means to secure your election as the first Mayor of the Town, a position which we feel sure you will worthily serving of at our hands.

CHIT-CHAT LOCALS.

Gathered by our Reporters.

Mr. T. O. Davis returned to town by the last mail.

Mr. R. Armstrong, one of Riel's capturers, is journeying in town.

A magnificent display of Xmas Cards at Cann's Bookstore. Call and see them.

Mr. T. Swanson has gone to sojourn for a while in the metropolis of Manitoba.

Sergt. Keenan and party made Indian payments at South Branch, and returned on Friday.

A party of twenty men in charge of Sergt. Parker are on the way from Hatchford.

Winter, apparently, has again set in.
We had another slight fall of the "beautiful" on Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Courtney have gone to spend this winter in Ireland, and expect to return in the spring.

Sergt. Colthart has arrived from Regina, and is posted to this Division.
Disp. Howe is shortly expected.

Sergt. Major Band and party of twenty men have been with Indian Agent Rae to Snake Plain and district as escort on Indian payments.

The post office has been removed east of O'Brien's restaurant, to a building belonging to Sergt. Keenan, and which has been handsomely fitted up for the purpose.

Chief Factor Belanger was surrounded by the P. A. C. Band Saturday evening, who to return received and entertained the members of the Band in the most cordial manner.

The nominations for Mayor and Councillors will take place at Mr. Brewster's office on Thursday, Nov. 20, from 10 a.m. till 12 noon, and in case a poll be demanded, the election will be held at the same place, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Friday, the thirteenth of November.

The candidates elected will meet at the same place on Monday, Nov. 16th, at 2 p.m., to be sworn in by the returning officer and receive their certificates.

The annual meeting of the Prince Albert Curling Club was held on Thursday evening in The Times office. There was a good attendance of members presented.

The Vice President, T. N. Campbell, took the chair, in the absence of Dr. Bain, President. The financial statement showed a creditable balance to the good. The election of officers was then proceeded with, and resulted as follows:—President, T. N. Campbell; Vice President, George D. Northgates; Representative Members, T. D. Brown and J. F. Kennedy; Chaplain, Rev. A.
Campbell; Treasurer, J. F. Kennedy; Secretary, W. B. Gunn; Committee of Management, A. Goodfellow, Col. Sprad, R. E. Horns, H. J. Montgomery and D. Mavery; Hon. Members, H. Macdonald, Esq., and Hon. L. Clarke; Patron and Patrons, Colonel and Mrs. Sprad.

A motion of condolence was passed to the widow of the late Wm. Stewart; and the friends of Messrs. Napier and Elliot, who were killed at Duck Lake fight.

LAND GRANTS.

To the Editor of The Times.

Sir,—Will you kindly inform me why the Government has not allowed land grants to the N. W. M. Police who served with the militia during the late rebellion, as it has to the militiamen?
You will confer a favor by answering my question, as I am much interested in the matter.

INQUIRER.

We refer our correspondent to recent articles published in these columns.

DISGRACEFUL CONDUCT.

Sir,—Would you kindly insert in your paper a warning we wish to give to some persons living not far from Prince Albert that hereafter we will not have any such scenes enacted at and around our church on Sunday, such as bell-ringing, wearing the Sunday school children, etc. If those persons wish to re-enact this same again, their names shall be published in the local paper, and in any other way be made examples of as we shall deem necessary.

us. Let us think of the Council only such men who have large interests at stake in the town and whose interests are the permanent welfare of Prince Albert, and not those who wish a little present prosperity at any cost. May the fate of Perrin la Prairie and Emerson be always a warning to the new municipality to keep off the rocks of extravagance.

MR. WHITE'S REPLY

In our last issue we gave at length the Hon. Thos. White's reply to the address presented to him by the citizens of Prince Albert, and the people of the surrounding District.
There are one or two points in Mr.
White's speech that are well worthy of our attention, and we will briefly comment on them. In the first place let us premise our remarks by saying that the hon. gentleman did not confine himself to the broken track of most public men, who of course at the moment express themselves very much delighted with all that has been done to do them honor, and having made the usual stereotyped reply, at once forget all about it and dismiss the affair from their minds. Mr. White not only expressed to us his gratification at the character of the reception accorded to him, but when he left us for other parts of the country, referred more than once to what we had done towards showing how pleased we were to see him in our midst. This in itself will be very pleasing to the people generally and the committee in particular, and will well repay them for what little trouble they took in making Mr.
White's visit a pleasant one to him as for us to look back upon. And it is by these little remarks let fall unintentionally that we really get at the sentiments of public men. Before finishing with this subject let us say that whatever was done was meant for the best, and after Mr.
White's expressions of gratitude, the trouble expended is now looked upon as a real pleasure. The subject of Parliamentary representation is too extensive a one for us to go into at the present time, and the several ideas on it have been already ventilated to such an extent as to make further discussion unnecessary.
The fact of the census being taken may be considered as a promise that the matter will not rest here, and we feel sure that from what we have seen of Mr. White that he is not the sort of man to do things by halves.
We are glad to see that the hon. gentleman fully recognises the great importance of Railways to this community, for that matter is of vital importance to the North West.
In reference to the opening out of the Hudson's Bay route, we must consider it simply a question of open communication with shipping ports in the Hudson's Bay. We suppose that no other country in the world affords such grand facilities for the export of produce, as any railway running in the direction of the Hudson's Bay will be to a great extent assisted by river communication. There is no doubt that the opening out of the Hudson's Bay route is only a question of time and that on its success depends the future of the country. The unusually liberal grant of land made to the Hudson's Bay Railway Company, and the great endeavors made to ascertain the nature of this maritime outlet, show that the Government has the matter at heart, and fully realise that they see how deeply it affects the interests of the country. We must admit that Mr.
White's remarks in reference to the protection of timber were very sensible; for we must perforce look to the day when timber will be very scarce and we shall be obliged to fall back on the more expensive coal. This latter is in itself an argument that the railway construction of the country be pushed forward rapidly. The same may be said concerning more frequent postal communication, and we are glad to see that Mr. White is doing his best to assist us in this matter also.

In fact the quickest solution of all these little troubles would be the railway that would bring us into closer communication with the outside world. The want of a permanent resident magistrate has been long and keenly felt in Prince Albert, and as this is one of our most pressing necessities, we are glad that the matter has at last a chance of being seriously considered. In conclusion, we are glad that Mr. White has had an opportunity of seeing us as we are, hearing our very substantial grievances, and giving us an opportunity of expressing our real sentiments. And we are sure that he will carry away with him, as he says, a very pleasing impression of his visit.

INCORPORATION.

We have at last become a corporate body, under the name of "The Town of Prince Albert." The first election for Mayor and Councillors takes place on Thursday, the 12th of November. We believe there are numerous candidates in the field, who will offer themselves for election. The citizens of Prince Albert, in this the first municipal election to be held in this District, should exercise the greatest care in their choice of men to represent them in the Council, and only elect those who by a long residence in the District have made themselves thoroughly acquainted with the wants and capabilities of the town.
We have in the past greatly felt the want of several improvements that could only be made by united action on the part of the settlement, and it was for this purpose we became incorporated. We believe Prince Albert to be capable of great things, but the time has not yet come when we should embark in any great enterprise or allow any large expenditure of public money, which at some future time it may be necessary for us to do in order to keep Prince Albert the leading town in the North West Territories. At present the watchword of the Council should be "Economy," but not that miserly economy which is afraid to spend a dollar for fear it may be wasted, but the economy of the good business man who looks ahead and spends a little now that what he has may not be lost to him. One of the first things needed is a fire engine. We all felt the want of one last Saturday night when Jackson's drug store was on fire, and no effort could be made to save the building. A little expenditure now for a fire engine may save us thousands of dollars in the future, and the longer we remain without one the worse it will be for

THE MONARCH OF THE WEEKLIES.

14th YEAR OF PUBLICATION 14th.

CAMPAIGN 1885-1886.

Magnificent Premiums and Grand Prize Scheme.

Over $1,400 worth of Handsome Prizes to be given away. 100 Splendid Prizes.

Balance of 1885 FREE. Only $2 to 1887.

THE GREATEST OFFER YET MADE.

At no former period in the history of the Manitoba Weekly Free Press have the publishers made their annual subscription with so great a degree of confidence in the prospects for a large increase of circulation or with as liberal offers to intending subscribers as in presenting this magnificent offer for the campaign of 1885-86.

The Weekly Free Press is now entering upon its fourteenth year of publication, and at no time in its history has it been as popular as it is today, or enjoyed a greater measure of confidence from the people of the Canadian Northwest.

From its inception up to the present time the Free Press has always represented the cause of the Northwest, being the unflinching defender of its best interests, and endeavoring to improve its condition or develop its great resources and opposing whatever is calculated to injure this magnificent country.

For the past fourteen years the Free Press has been the leading paper in the Northwest. The Weekly Free Press is the largest paper published in Canada. It is printed in a modern and spacious office in the country. Every issue contains all the local, Provincial, Territorial and Foreign news of the week, of special interest to the Northwest. In the future its enhanced expense will be spared to maintain for its present proud position, and every year improvements will be introduced whenever possible.

The great aim of the publishers of the Free Press at the present time is, if possible, to double the already magnificent circulation, and extraordinary inducements are therefore presented to subscribers.

As a first inducement the balance of the current year from any time hereafter will be given to all subscribers who send in one year's subscription, that is, over fifteen months, or to January 1, 1887. To not forget this great advantage.

But apart from the excellent value of over fifteen months of the Weekly Free Press at the price of one year's subscription, the publishers have decided to give as a very extra inducement one hundred grand prizes, aggregating over $1,400 worth of valuable goods from the leading retail houses of Winnipeg, in their respective lines, among their subscribers.

The prize scheme will be conducted upon the same principle on which the magnificent cash prize of $50,000 and $100,000 were allotted to our subscribers in the 1884 campaign, and which gave such universal satisfaction. All subscribers on our subscription list on the first day of January next, whose last payment was for not less than a whole year, it will be eligible for the competition, and will participate in the prize scheme. The prizes will be awarded to the one hundred subscribers who have the largest number of copies of the Free Press on their list.

For full details of the Grand Prize List see the Weekly Free Press or obtain a circular at any postoffice in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories.

It is only necessary to read over our prize list to be fully persuaded that it is the greatest and most valuable inducement ever introduced into the Canadian Northwest, and the greatest opportunity ever offered to the people of this country for obtaining valuable and handsome prizes.

The different articles for the Free Press List have been selected with the greatest care, and, as they do from the leading houses in Winnipeg, they may be thoroughly relied upon. The value placed upon each prize in the list is the lowest retail price of the goods in Winnipeg, and the various articles are excellent value for the prices named.

Let every one consider well the advantages of subscribing now. The Weekly Free Press, which is universally acknowledged to be the best value in the Northwest for the reader, for a year, to be obtained over fifteen months for that sum, and the chance of securing one of the splendid prizes offered.

The Weekly Free Press should be found in every household in Manitoba and the Northwest Territories. It is the paper to subscribe for and send to friends about.

Remember the fact that those who subscribe the earliest get the most for their money, as Two Dollars—cash in advance—pays from the date of subscribing to the first of January, 1887.
